

Luigi Bormioli makes it crystal clear

To complement the highly successful Luigi Bormioli Crystal Glass Collections a new and stunning range of contemporary Cut 24% Lead Crystal adds another dimension to the brand. Packaged in stylish high quality presentation boxes, the stunning range was well received by buyers at the Exclusively Housewares Show in June.

It is in stock and available now from Western House.

For more information call 01256 462341, e-mail sales@western-house.com or visit www.western-house.com

Drink in style

Dunoon has introduced a set of 6 designs to their stunning collection of Solway shape Fine Bone China mugs. The William Morris Studio Collection is a modern interpretation of William Morris's beautiful and artistic designs on the Solway shape accentuated with gold. The set pictured features one of William Morris' stunning floral patterns set in black, white and gold with birds of paradise and extra floral detail featured inside the mugs. These mugs will make a stylish addition to any home and with each set presented in an individual matching gift box, they also make the perfect gift for art lovers, William Morris fans and anyone with an eye for stylish design. Dunoon displayed the collection at the Home & Gift exhibition in Harrogate.

For more information call 01785 817414 or fax 01785 812322.

A scuttling success!

The Present Day range of contemporary gifts has been launched to critical acclaim. This collection of over 80 gifts for men, women and the home provides the complete gift experience from a trusted and highly desirable brand. The range has triumphed by marrying outstanding products with sumptuous gift boxes and gorgeous matching gift bags. Present Day has a very high perceived value, yet benefits from surprisingly accessible prices, with 80% of the range retailing between £10 and £25. To keep the collection fresh, Arthur Price regularly introduces exciting, cutting-edge designs. One of this season's sensational innovations is the three-piece cheese set, comprising a nickel-plated slice, fork and knife. The handles are designed to look like chunky pieces of cheese, each with a three dimensional mouse scuttling across it. Present Day also provides superior in store fixtures to help bring the brand to life, including perspex display tray, display tower and a lockable glass cabinet.

For more information call 01543 257775, email sales@arthurprice.com or visit www.arthurprice.com

A corking idea!

T&G Woodware has a fantastic collection of Cork lifestyle and Cork mats, which now offers the addition of new magnetic designs! Trust T&G to take the simplicity of cork and give an innovative twist by introducing two new magnetic cork hot pot stands, which are suitable for all induction, cast iron and most stainless steel cookware. T&G have a comprehensive collection of more than 15 cork products, including trivets, tray placemats and coasters. T&G's cork range offers cost-effective products that help protect tables and work-surfaces throughout the home. Environmentally friendly and practical, they make the perfect addition to any kitchen.

For more information call 01275 841841 or visit www.tg-woodware.com

