Evoking the idyllic farmyard setting, Paper Farm incorporates charming paperchain silhouettes with modern colours, creating stunning contemporary imagery. The rustic inspiration and top-quality ceramic is an excellent follow-up range to the successful Scuba range, which Make unveiled in 2009. The two ranges are both perfect for spring/summer dining and successfully previewed at the 2009 fairs. Created with the highest quality porcelain, the two ranges are a breath of fresh air for all dining - from a country kitchen to idyllic al fresco entertaining. Rachel is one of a host of British designers that design textiles and tableware exclusively for MAKE.

Dominic Speelman, managing director of MAKE International, said: "Paper Farm is the perfect addition to every kitchen and dining room, bringing a little bit of spring and warmth into the house during the cold winter months." Paper Farm range begins at £9.99
